DID YOU KNOW THAT WE CAN MANAGE YOUR PROJECTS FOR YOU?

We understand as a consultant how busy managing a project can get, let us help to improve the efficiency of your project and let you focus on the client engagement.

- Assisting with setting the timeframe required to ensure delivery requirements are met and agreeing all communication protocols upfront e.g. project launch date; completion date; run report date; profile/binder in hand dates
- Assisting to ensure the best project setup and selection of project options to suit the project
- Sending participants an introductory email prior to the survey being launched, including guidelines to selecting evaluators
- Setup and launching the project - including adding participants and evaluators and editing the standard invitation and reminder emails as required.
- Sending reminders to an agreed schedule
- Providing project updates on an agreed schedule
- Dealing with bounced emails that may arise and resolving the issue
- Highlighting issues as they arise, in a timely manner, such as a participant that hasn't completed a self-survey or a participant needs to add an additional peer to make 3 for that breakout category to ensure that they receive the best profile possible.
- Sending personal reminders to those that have not completed the survey 2 days prior to completion (we find this significantly increases the response rate)
- Working with the consultant to see if the completion date may need to be extended and understanding the timeframes to ensure delivery when required.
- Providing PDF copies of the profiles as required and generating aggregate reports if needed.
