

RIXT KUIPER

SENIOR LEADERSHIP CONSULTANT & EXECUTIVE COACH

LOCATION: NETHERLANDS

LANGUAGES: DUTCH, ENGLISH

With a career that started 20 years ago in the USA, continuing in Hong Kong and Europe, Rixt is a very experienced international executive coach and leadership consultant. She is passionate about supporting natural organizational transformation through the conscious practice of leadership. Rixt is a dedicated source of change, combining intellect, intuition and a-down-to-earth approach to creating results that last.

Outcomes that clients mention are improved relationship building, decisiveness and authenticity, systems awareness and leading complex change. By coaching senior executives and their teams, she helps them to lead a peaceful revolution fueled by values, ethics and soul toward a meaningful future. This leadership development process generates empowerment and engagement for all involved. She firmly believes that this transformation process starts within the leaders themselves.

She has worked with a great variety of senior leaders and teams from 30+ countries, consulting for many Fortune 500 companies, focusing on conscious leadership for inclusion, innovation and whole system change. Rixt's client list spans a wide range of business categories.

With a sincere desire to only do the work that makes a sustainable difference, Rixt brings evidenced informed coaching techniques to uncover assumptions and challenge limiting narratives, unlocking fresh perspectives and wholeness. She delicately balances individual-, team- and systemic interventions, keeping the overall purpose of the transformation in mind. Rixt holds a MA in Human Development, with a focus on integrity and conscious leadership. She founded and co-leads the Intercultural Coaching Community for the EMCC.

Rixt has her home in the Netherlands, where she lives with her husband and their three teenage children. In her spare time, she enjoys dancing, being in nature, silence, reading, playing the piano and traveling to new places.
