

PETER STOPPELENBURG

SENIOR LEADERSHIP CONSULTANT & EXECUTIVE COACH

LOCATION: THE NETHERLANDS

EXPERIENCE IN: GLOBAL

LANGUAGES: ENGLISH & DUTCH

Organizations and leaders are living in a world of change, disruption, and uncertainty, with increasing demands on leaders. Peter coaches leaders how to navigate this transforming environment and supports them in their journey of leading and fostering cooperation, innovation, operational agility, and achieving business results.

Peter's coaching style is personal, practical, challenging, and always supportive with a touch of playfulness, humor, and kindness. He has a systemic view and works with leaders (based on their needs) to increase their effectiveness on a personal, team, organization, and ecosystem level, always keeping in mind how to lead your business in a sustainable way.

Peter has a vast business experience with hands-on transformation and leadership capabilities. Before becoming a consultant, he has worked for two decades in senior finance and general management positions. Peter's strong business background gives him the ability to step into the shoes of the client to support and deal with issues effectively. He has led large systemic transformations effectively for multinational organizations. Having worked for international organizations and lived in several countries, Peter brings in a global context and on-the-ground experience leading multinational teams.

Other people describe him as business and performance-oriented, engaging, pragmatic, empathic, supportive, fun, and culturally sensitive. Peter coaches individuals, teams, and organizations in their transformation. In this area, Peter is a recognized authority and an expert on agile. He is the author of the bestsellers High Performance 3.0 and The Essence of an Agile Organization.

Peter loves to work with people at all levels across industries. People who are facing complex challenges, want to see and experience things differently, experiment with their leadership, and are not shying away to find answers on some of the most existential questions in their own life and business get the most out of coaching with him. This often translates into clients with executive and senior leadership roles.

Peter has worked all around the globe and lived in Belgium, the United States, Norway, Germany, and Denmark. Currently, he lives in the Netherlands with his wife and three children. He is also a certified cook and can arrange a cooking workshop while coaching.
