

CHERYL CHANTRY

SENIOR LEADERSHIP CONSULTANT AND EXECUTIVE COACH

LOCATION: SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA

EXPERIENCE IN: AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND, SINGAPORE, CHINA, JAPAN, KOREA, TAIWAN, MALAYSIA, INDIA, PHILIPPINES, UNITED KINGDOM

LANGUAGES: ENGLISH

Cheryl Chantry is an executive coach and consultant who focuses on strategic thinking, top team development, team effectiveness, succession planning, transition development, culture change, business model transformation, operational performance, customer-based design thinking, and complex stakeholder engagement strategies.

Taking a solution focused, strengths-based approach, Cheryl leverages her deep executive leadership experience through direct and collaborative partnering with her clients. Her presence and relationship skills enable her to quickly get to the heart of clients' development opportunities, leveraging a focus on well-being, positive psychology, and a range of practical yet powerful frameworks to turn insight into impact.

With over 20 years experience in the financial services sector as a Senior Executive level leader, Cheryl has a proven track record in leading large customer facing, operational and strategic planning teams. She is an experienced Board and Industry level Governance Committee Director, familiar with the challenges of working in highly regulated environments. She founded her own business in 2019 with a vision of leveraging her experience and capability in service of the leadership development of others.

Cheryl has been recognised as an Australian Financial Review Boss Magazine Young Executive of the Year and was a recipient of a Chief Executive Women's scholarship to study at INSEAD. She was a Director of the IAG Foundation and is the current Independent Insurance Industry representative on the General Insurance Code Governance Committee.

Cheryl works with c-suite, executive, and senior leaders and teams who are serious about their development and the impact they are working to make across industries and in communities which they serve. Her coaching clients consistently attest to the shifts they have made to their leadership impact and their life fulfillment as a result of the work they have done together.

Cheryl has a daughter in her late teens, loves cooking, long dog walks, reading, and spending time in nature.

Has Worked With

- IAG
- Suncorp
- Insurance Council of Australia
- Westpac
- Microsoft
- Salesforce
- PwC
- EY
- McKinsey
- Federal & State Government agencies
- Lockheed Martin
- Isentia
- Airtrunk
- Swiss Re
- TAL
- iCare
- AJ Gallagher

Certifications

- Leadership Circle Profile
- Collective Leadership Assessment
- Leadership Circle Pulse feedback series
- Be Well, Lead Well Pulse
- Mental Health First Aid Practitioner
- Hogan

How She Honed Her Craft

- 1000+ coaching hours
- 7+ years as a coach & consultant
- International Coach Federation Professional Certified Coach (ICF PCC)
- Master's, Coaching Psychology, Sydney University
- Master's, Business Administration, Macquarie University
- Fellow & Graduate of the Australian Institute Company of Directors (GAICD)
- IECL level 3 Certified Organisational Coach
- Ongoing areas of interest: integrating somatic techniques into coaching dialogue, adult development and acceptance, and commitment therapy