

MARIAM AL-DOURI

SENIOR LEADERSHIP CONSULTANT AND EXECUTIVE COACH

LOCATION: KUWAIT

EXPERIENCE IN: KUWAIT, SAUDI ARABIA, UAE, QATAR, BAHRAIN, OMAN

LANGUAGES: ARABIC AND ENGLISH

Mariam Al-Douri partners with clients (usually executives, managers, high-potential employees, professionals, and entrepreneurs) for self-development. Her approach offers a supportive sounding board with tailored practices that incorporate a thought-provoking and creative process. Sessions include probing questions and challenging assumptions to better understand success factors, addressing areas of disconnect or gaps, and exploring perceptions and expectations. These exercises help achieve greater clarity on goals, initiate the discovery phase, and kickstart one's journey towards unlocking potential and reaching the desired state.

Holding an MBA with a focus on Strategic Management, Mariam has held senior transformative roles in corporate human resources and communication for privately owned and listed organizations in the Middle East and Europe.

Having dealt extensively with corporate stakeholders (both internally and externally and including Board of Directors) in leading multiple strategic initiatives in change management for 20+ years, Mariam formalized her passion for individual and organizational psychology by receiving her certifications in coaching. To date, she has provided 3,000+ hours of coaching and advisory services to professionals from diverse backgrounds and sectors, including industrial, real estate, finance and banking, food and beverage, government, medical, retail, oil and gas, fine arts, and entrepreneurship.
